HEALTH & BEHAVIOURAL

- All medication must be in original packaging with prescription details and handed to the registration desk on arrival if under 18.
- Illness: Campers must not attend if they have been sick within 48 hours of arrival. This includes flulike symptoms, fever, runny nose, cough, sore throat, vomiting, or diarrhoea). Contact Nic or Annalise (directors) with any concerns.
- Thinking Matters Camps are strictly smoke, vape, alcohol, and drug free. Any violation of these will result in camper being sent home immediately.
- Any serious behavioural issues will result in parents/contacts being contacted and may result in an early pickup.

PHONES

- Campers are allowed to bring phones to camp but will be required to place them in a box outside of the room during sessions to avoid distractions and unexpected noises.

OTHER INFORMATION

- All camp fees must be paid prior to the beginning of camp, unless a payment plan has been organised with the directors.
- Leave any valuables at home if you can. We cannot guarantee the safety of your items in bunkrooms.

DRESS CODE FOR CAMPS

To create a respectful, focused, and comfortable learning and activity environment, we ask everyone to follow the following guidelines:

Tops

Shirts or blouses should cover the shoulders and midriff.

No spaghetti straps, halter tops, or low-cut tops.

Sleeveless shirts with wide straps are acceptable.

Guys must keep shirts on at all times except when swimming. Singlets or tank tops with large cutout or side openings that reveal the chest are not permitted.

Bottoms

Shorts, skirts, and dresses should be of modest length, reaching mid-thigh or longer.

Pants, jeans, and capris are all appropriate.

Swimwear

Ladies: One-piece swimsuits or tankini tops with shorts.

Guys: Board shorts. Shirts should be worn at all times unless swimming or participating in water-base activities.

Swimwear should be modest and appropriate for group activities.

General Guidelines

Clothing should not display offensive language, images, or slogans.

Pyjamas, loungewear, or clothing intended for sleep are not suitable for classroom or group sessions.

Shoes should be safe and appropriate for indoor and outdoor activities.

Sessions

Wearing tidy, classroom-appropriate clothing is conducive to your learning so we require tidy clothes during sessions. You are welcome to get changed into activity-wear before our afternoon free times.
